School Council Meeting

In this meeting we discussed trying to get cardigans for the girls. We also discussed track-suit bottoms for the girls. We did discuss also the fact that when we attempt to wash our hands there is no soap in the soap dispenser.

We also met up with Mr Clayton and he told us that they are refilled up every morning and by lunch they are empty. He also revealed that in one of the toilets it is going through nine toilet rolls! If you would like question the school council put your question in the comment box at the office.

Valentines Day Hat Competition

By Eleanor Fields and Henry Chafor

On Friday the 12th of February, the school's dinner ladies had a Valentines Day hat competition in which, they created their own hats, and could have been as wacky as they liked. The participants were; Mrs But-ton; Mrs Brelsford; Mrs Arrand; Mrs Emson; Mrs Wills; Mrs Curtis and Mrs Grundy. After much deliberating, Mrs Ball and Mrs Hall decided that the winner was Mrs Brelsford, with the prize being a huge box of chocolates.

Book Review

Cathy's book – if found call (650) 266-8233

Cathy's book is a fictional diary about a girl called Cathy. She is the kind of girl who is always in trouble at school and behind on her homework. Cathy is an incredible artist and her journal is covered in doodles. When Cathy breaks up with her boyfriend she is devastated. She wants to find out exactly why he has been disappearing and being mysterious. I would definitely recommend this book because it has you hanging on edge so you don't want to put it down. Cathy is so unpredictable when you think she is going to stay at home and research it she goes and investigates around town. Cathy's book is the best book I have read in a long time.
